

Addresses

Every building and home has an address. It is like a special code that tells us where someone or something is located. Just like how your house has a name or a number to tell people where you live, every place in your community has an address, including your house and your school. It helps us find our friends' houses, our school, or even the store where we buy our favorite snacks. Addresses are like maps that guide us to the right place!"

Ann Bates
475 Blue Lane
Sunnyville, Texas
USA 29465

1. What is the first name of the person getting the letter?
2. What street does the person live on?
3. What town does the person live in?
4. What state does the person live in?
5. What country does the person live in.
6. What is the number for on the last line?