

Adverbs

Underline the adverb then write a similar sentence using a different adverb

Example: The rain stopped abruptly and the sun came out.
The rain stopped slowly and then the sun came out.

- 1) The bunny hopped quickly across the field.
- 2) The rain fell gently on the roof of the house.
- 3) We sang joyfully during music class.
- 4) The magician performed his tricks amazingly well.
- 5) She read the storybook enthusiastically to her little brother.
- 6) The chef cooked the pasta perfectly for lunch.
- 7) The children played tag energetically in the playground.
- 8) The wind blew softly through the leaves on the trees.
- 9) The baby slept peacefully in the crib.
- 10) The fire crackled noisily in the fireplace.

Answers:

- 1) The bunny hopped quickly across the field.
- 2) The rain fell gently on the roof of the house.
- 3) We sang joyfully during music class.
- 4) The magician performed his tricks amazingly well.
- 5) She read the storybook enthusiastically to her little brother.
- 6) The chef cooked the pasta perfectly for lunch.
- 7) The children played tag energetically in the playground.
- 8) The wind blew softly through the leaves on the trees.
- 9) The baby slept peacefully in the crib.
- 10) The fire crackled noisily in the fireplace.