

Life Cycle of a Salmon

Use the information below to label and describe each stage of the life cycle of the salmon.

The Fry swims out of the gravel.

Eggs hatch into the Alevins.

The Smolts continue to grow and prepare to make the trip to the ocean.

Eggs are in the gravel of fresh water and will hatch there.

The Adult stays in the ocean until it's ready to spawn (lay eggs).

ANSWERS

Eggs are in the gravel of fresh water and will hatch there.

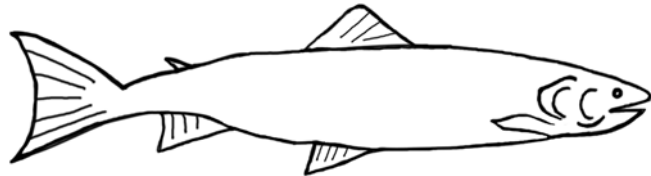

Eggs hatch into the Alevins.

The Fry swims out of the gravel.

The Smolts continue to grow and prepare to make the trip to the ocean.

The Adult stays in the ocean until it's ready to spawn (lay eggs).