

Altogether or All together

1. Did you go on vacation all together/altogether or did someone stay home?
2. My brother's idea was not altogether /altogether bad, but we had to make some adjustments.
3. Why did you discuss this altogether/all together without including me?
4. I was altogether /all together hurt that they made the decision without me.
5. Our family has not been all together/altogether under one roof since my oldest brother left for college.
6. I'm avoiding that question altogether/all together.
7. To move the car, we must push all together/altogether.
8. You should be altogether/all together clear to prevent a misunderstanding.
9. She stirred the ingredients all together/altogether.
10. I expect you to be altogether/all together honest with me.

Answers

1. Did you go on vacation all together or did someone stay home?
2. My brother's idea was not altogether bad, but we had to make some adjustments.
3. Why did you discuss this all together without including me?
4. I was altogether hurt that they made the decision without me.
5. Our family has not been all together under one roof since my oldest brother left for college.
6. I'm avoiding that question altogether.
7. To move the car, we must push all together.
8. You should be altogether clear to prevent a misunderstanding.
9. She stirred the ingredients all together.
10. I expect you to be altogether honest with me.