

Name: _____

Between the Lines

Have you noticed the 'news' that sneaks its way into social media apps? Is it real? Is it fake? How do you know? What about those posts from unknown individuals? Real? Not real? Look at some of those conspicuous posts that appear 'newsy' and answer the questions below and remember to always ask yourself questions about posts before accepting them as truths.

① Who created the message? Is it a reliable source? How do you know? _____

② How did this message grab your attention? Why did you read it? _____

③ How did you interpret the message? Could it be interpreted differently by somebody who may have a different point of view? _____

④ Why do you think this message is there? _____

⑤ Who would this message appeal to and why? _____

Name: _____

Between the Lines

Have you noticed the 'news' that sneaks its way into social media apps? Is it real? Is it fake? How do you know? What about those posts from unknown individuals? Real? Not real? Look at some of those conspicuous posts that appear 'newsy' and answer the questions below and remember to always ask yourself questions about posts before accepting them as truths.

① Who created the message? Is it a reliable source? How do you know? _____

② How did this message grab your attention? Why did you read it? _____

③ How did you interpret the message? Could it be interpreted differently by somebody who may have a different point of view? _____

④ Why do you think this message is there? _____
