

Think Critically With Images

Name _____

Discuss as a whole class then have students complete some images on their own.

1. Determine 3 captions for this picture could and state why those captions would be appropriate.
2. Where could this picture have been taken? Why might you think that?
3. What are the 2 girls in the background talking about?
What makes you think that?
4. How do you think the girl in the front feels? What makes you think that?
5. What do you think happened just before this picture was taken?
6. What do you think will happen next?
7. What time of year could this be? What makes you think this?
8. There are 3 people in this picture. Pretend to be each one of them and describe what just happened and what you're thinking.
9. If you were a bystander walking by these 3 girls and know them well, what would you say?
10. If this picture was the cover picture for a book, what might the book be called?
