

Easily confused words:

1. The party invitations were written on stationary/stationery designed by my friend.
2. The pharmacy is on the third storey/story of the building.

Correct the sentence:

1. I cant go to the concert you should go without me
2. Although everyone wonders about the pandemic no one can predict when there will be a cure

Parts of Speech Find the verbs in the sentences:

1. I hope to see you this weekend.
2. I think it is a good idea.

Simile or Metaphor:

1. Your friend's eyes are as blue as the sea.
2. You are the shining star in my classroom today.

Correct Spellings

1. independant / independent
2. mischievous / mischievious

True or False:

1. Ellipsis marks are used to indicate when some words have been omitted. (I wish I had more time but.....)
2. Capital letters are rarely used in proper nouns. (they are always used)

Easily confused words:

1. The party invitations were written on stationary/stationery designed by my friend.
2. The pharmacy is on the third storey/story of the building.

Correct the sentence:

1. I can't go to the concert; you should go without me.
2. Although everyone wonders about the pandemic, no one can predict when there will be a cure.

Parts of Speech Find the verbs in the sentences:

1. I hope to see you this weekend.
2. I think it is a good idea.

Simile or Metaphor:

1. Your friend's eyes are as blue as the sea. S
2. You are the shining star in my classroom today. M

Correct Spellings

1. independant / independent
2. mischievous / mischievious

True or False:

1. Ellipsis marks are used to indicate when some words have been omitted. T (I wish I had more time but.....)
2. Capital letters are rarely used in proper nouns. F (they are always used)