

Name: _____

Surviving an Earthquake

Make a model of a structure that would survive an earthquake.

What You Need:

- Use a variety of materials but indicate what those materials would be made out of in real life.
- Sketch a diagram of your model first.

Explain why you chose the materials you did and why those materials may stand up to the force of an earthquake.

Diagram of my structure that would survive an earthquake: