

Setting:

Write a strong paragraph about the setting. In the opening sentence, explain where the setting is, provide several details about the setting throughout the body of the paragraph, in the concluding sentence wrap up and be sure you leave the reader with a strong visual about the setting. Make sure you consider the 5 senses of the reader.

