

Scanning a Fiction Book

When you scan a book quickly you are looking for key information. Your eyes move quickly over the text to get a quick overview about what the book is about. You look at the cover, inside the cover and scan chapter titles to determine if it is a book you think you would enjoy reading.

Your Task: Using fiction elements, indicate what you learned and whether you would want to read the book or not.

① Title and Book Cover: _____

② Chapter Titles: _____

③ Introduction or Forward: _____

④ First paragraph or two: _____

⑤ Would you read? Why or why not? _____
