

Understanding Media Texts: Analyzing a Website's Intent

What is the name of the website you are using and what is the main topic or theme of the website?

What does the information seem to be mostly about?

What are the pictures about?

What are the advertisements about? What group of people would like these products/services being advertised?

What age group and interests would this website appeal to most and why do you think so?

