

Find the Nouns

Underline each noun and state why it's a noun: people, place, thing or idea.

1. Most centipedes do not have exactly 100 legs, although that is what their name means. _____
2. Some dogs are trained to search for people who get lost in the mountains. _____
3. Bees can sting, but they are very important for the environment. _____
4. Some caterpillars stay in their cocoons more than one year before emerging a butterfly! _____
5. I saw a ship sail into the harbor yesterday at dawn. _____
6. She thought candy grew from the tree. _____
7. Miranda and Michael have a new baby sister. _____
8. Dogs enjoy walking around the park. _____
9. If you want your dinner, do not insult your cook. _____
10. People can be deprived of food a lot longer than they can go without water. _____
11. We are remodeling the walls and windows at home. _____
12. Eggs, bacon, and pancakes make a good breakfast. _____

ANSWERS

1. Most centipedes do not have exactly 100 legs, although that is what their name means. _____
2. Some dogs are trained to search for people who get lost in the mountains. _____
3. Bees can sting, but they are very important for the environment. _____
4. Some caterpillars stay in their cocoons more than one year before emerging a butterfly! _____
5. I saw a ship sail into the harbor yesterday at dawn. _____
6. She thought candy grew from the tree. _____
7. Miranda and Michael have a new baby sister. _____
8. Dogs enjoy walking around the park. _____
9. If you want your dinner, do not insult your cook. _____
10. People can be deprived of food a lot longer than they can go without water. _____
11. We are remodeling the walls and windows at home. _____
12. Eggs, bacon, and pancakes make a good breakfast. _____