

Printed Matter

Children should be exposed to a variety of printed matter, this includes having opportunities to read, write and talk about the various forms of printed matter listed below.

Abbreviations	Drop-down	Journals	Prose
Acronyms	menus	Labels	Proverbs
Advertisements	Directions	Legends	Recipes
Appendices	Editorials	Letters	References
Autobiographies	Electronic Device	Lists	Reports
Bar Graphs	Icons	Magazines	Rhymes
Bibliographies	Encyclopedias	Manuals	Schedules
Biographies	Epics	Maps	Sentences
Boldface	Essays	Maps	Short Stories
Book Reviews	Expository Texts	Memoirs	Signs
Brochures	Fables	Memos	Songs
Captions	Folk Tales	Menus	Speech Bubbles
Cartoons	Footnotes /	Minutes	Speeches
Catalogues	Endnotes	Myths	Story Maps
Charts	Forwards	Narratives	Subheadings
Checklists	Glossaries	Newspapers	Table of Contents
Classics	Graphic	Novels	Tables
Comics	Organizers	Parentheses	Tales
Computer Menus	Graphs	Pie Graphs	Texts
Cross-references	Haiku	Plays	Thesaurus
Diagrams	Icon	Poems	Thought Clouds
Dialogue	Idioms	Posters	Timetables
Diaries	Indexes	Preface	Title Page
Dictionaries	Internet searches	Procedural	Toolbars
Directories	Internet articles	Texts	Weather
	Introductions		Webpages