Write a Great Conclusion

Make your last words count! As you look at your recount, think about how you could write a great conclusion. Try some of the suggestions here:

- 1 Can you think of a question to leave the reader with about your recount, yet still leave the reader with a strong sense of conclusion?
- 2 Is there a great quote you could end with or could you come up with your own quote to leave the reader with?
- 3 Can you write something that will provoke the reader into thinking deeply about your recount?
- 4 Summarize your main point with lots of 'punch'.
- 5 Write a conclusion that will cause evoke specific feelings. (empathy, enthusiasm, admiration...)
- 6 Write a conclusion that will propel your reader into having a new view of your topic.
