Privacy Settings

Social networking sites like Facebook provide you with control over your privacy settings. Making sure your privacy settings are set properly will help to ensure that you're not putting yourself at risk. Remember to Google yourself regularly, you never know what may affect you later in life.

Complete the chart below by giving examples of what each setting below can see on Facebook:

Only me:

Friends:

Friends of Friends:

Everyone: